

Continuing Professional Development Guidelines

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is essential for maintaining the knowledge, skills, and ethical standards expected of AUSactive accredited professionals. These guidelines provide a framework to support lifelong learning, promote industry compliance, and the delivery of safe, effective, and evidence-based services.

By actively engaging in CPD, professionals uphold the integrity of their accreditation and contribute to the advancement of the industry.

Continuing Professional Development Points

CPD points are aligned with completing relevant professional development associated with a wide range of activities to help our members achieve their professional development obligations. CPD points are allocated according to the quality and duration of an education program, activity or event. Those that include an assessment of knowledge and skill often have higher CPD points.

Please refer to the following guidelines for details of recognised continuing professional development activities:

What is it?

AUSactive has a formal process for education providers to submit their education for a quality review by independent assessors.

Education that carries the approved CPD logo has undergone a thorough review, assessed against quality education criteria, to verify the education and presenters meet minimum industry endorsed standards. There are around 800 approved courses to choose from that cover a wide range of topics.

CPD Eligible

Approved courses range from 1-15 CPD points. Courses requiring greater than 100 hours meeting foundation registration requirements for registration are allocated 20 CPD points. There is no limit on the number of approved courses you can complete. It is recommended that you select courses relevant to your professional growth and goals.

Evidence

CPD providers will issue you with a certificate of completion. Upload your certificate into your CPD diary by logging in to your professional dashboard.

Examples

Visit the CPD directory to search a range of topics, including but not limited to:

- Business and marketing
- Boxing for fitness
- Group exercise
- Pilates
- Yoga
- Tai Chi
